

BRENAU COMMENCEMENT OPENED LAST NIGHT

JUNIOR RECEPTION LAST NIGHT A BRILLIANT AFFAIR—TONIGHT ALUMNAE BANQUET WILL BRING TOGETHER A NOTABLE GATHERING—GOV. CANDLER TO RESPOND TO TOAST.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

GAINESVILLE, May 23.—Brenau college commencement opened formally last evening with the junior class reception to the outgoing seniors. Never did the college look more beautiful. The large handsome parlors have just been refurbished; all day yesterday the juniors were hard at work decorating and with the beautiful girls dressed in purest white and the handsome young men, all in full dress, the scene was inspiring.

Miss Mabel Brown, daughter of Atlanta's distinguished physician, Dr. George B. Brown, is president of the junior class organization and the success of the evening was due largely to her fine qualities of leadership. The class gave to her its enthusiastic co-operation last night and their reception was one of the most elegant ever given at the college.

This evening at the alumnae banquet will gather a brilliant assemblage of men and women. There will be present besides the alumnae of the college, their visiting friends, the trustees of the college, the parents of the present senior class, and the entire faculty. Covers will be laid for 150.

Governor Candler will be the guest of honor and will respond to the toast "Higher Education for Woman." The entire lower floor of the college is elaborately decorated for the receptions and for this banquet.

Following is the menu and some of the toasts:

MENU.
