

IS WILL GRADUATE FROM HIGH SCHOOLS.

BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL AND GIRLS'
HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT
THURSDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHTS RESPECTIVELY.

The Boys' High school and the Girls' High school of Atlanta will hold graduating exercises at the Grand opera house Thursday and Friday nights respectively. Sixty-three young women and fifty boys will receive diplomas.

Programs of an exceptionally attractive nature have been arranged for both occasions. At the boys' commencement Roy Goree will deliver the valedictory address, his subject being "Every Man Has His Place." There will also be speeches by William L. Heinz, Gordon B. Greenlee, Alfred F. Reyson and R. F. Sams, Jr. Besides the speeches and music there will be interesting exhibitions of gymnastics. Luther Z. Rosser, president of the board of education, will deliver the diplomas.

The feature of the girls' program Friday evening will be the class drill led by Misses Laura Robinson and Willie Williford and participated in by sixty-three girls, all of them dressed in white and carrying pink roses. Miss Fannie G. Mayson will make the welcome address. Miss Mary Ralls will read an essay on "The Southern Highlands," and Miss Cornelia Cooper an essay on "Education." The class will render a number of beautiful songs in chorus. President Rosser will award the diplomas.

A list of the graduates follows:

Girls' High School

Literary Course—Rosina Asmus, Anne Baker, Annie Frank Bass, Antoinette Blackman, Miranda Bradley, Grace Both, Ruby Bowle, Emma Childress, Cornelia Cooper, Henrietta Dull, Verna Eaves, Bessie Edwards, Moisselle Grech, Mary Griffin, Helen Gullatt, Patti Harrison, Mamie Herron, Harriet Holland, Elnan Hooper, Eva Hurt, Fannie G. Mayson, Hayden McKnight, Elizabeth Parker, Frances Pendleton, Helen Russey, Estelle Salter, Nonie Sears, Bessie Seawright, Mary Smith, Dorothy Stevens, Vera Summer, Margaret Thomas, Susie Walker, Sadie Wilby, Willie Williford, Belle Woodfin, Annie Vogt.

Commercial Course—Ellen Anderson, Katherine Brady, Rose Baker, Jessie Brown, Louise Burkett, Madelyn Brooks, Addie Chambers, Elma Cawthorn, Josie Denk, Ida Feldman, Lois Freeman, Myrtle Gann, Catherine Houchin, Etta LaFontaine, Annie Lanford, Ada Lee, Marguerite Morris, Rose McElhinney, Mary Ralls, Allie Sheram, Etta Sartorius, Ada Turner, Frances Williams.

Boys' High School

Classical Course—Henry Graybill Bedinger, McDonald Brittain, William Franklin Buchanan, William Candler, Edward Dessau Clarkson, Clarence A. Eagan, James Lewis Girardeau, Gordon B. Greenlee, Churchill Pomeroy Goree, Jr., David Lawrence Jenkins, Jr., Willis Justus Milner, Jr., William J. Northen, Jr., James Marshall Noyes, George G. Osborne, Hugh E. Osborn, Earl Pearson Rees, Richard Fuller Sams, Jr., Owen Slate, Robert Marshall Todd, Noland Tupper, Augustus Gilmer Vain, Grady B. Wells, Joseph Dehl Wilson, Alex Harry Yalovitz.

Technological Course—William Frank Aiken, Sidney S. Daniell, John Leonard Denton, William Hargreaves, Jr., William Louis Heinz, Milner Thornton Latta, Albert L. Loeb, Bernard Clark McGee, Elwyn W. Tomlinson.

Commercial Course—Claud T. Arnold, William H. Blackman, Jr., William Paul Carpenter, Hubert H. Cowan, Angell L. Cuesta, Jr., Lewis Burch Foster, Harold Read Harlan, Samuel Coleman Henry, G. A. Arthur Heyser.